

Senior Fire Alarm Technician

Cantec Fire, a progressive and value-based business is expanding and currently accepting applications for a senior fire prevention inspection technician. Preference will be given to experienced technicians with a variety of Manufacturer Training, CFAA or ASTT certification. We offer a competitive wage and good benefits, and the successful applicant must have a proven track record of positive interactions with all staff and clients. As a company, we are interested in character first.

The successful applicant will require:

- Experience and knowledge of fire alarm, emergency lighting and extinguisher servicing and repairing.
- Knowledge of Fire Code and Standards is expected
- Computer skills are an asset, as technicians will be working from a digital platform
- Electrical background would be an asset
- Valid drivers license with clean drivers abstract required
- Strong customer relations skills are an asset
- Ability to work independently
- Ability to work well with others as part of a team is paramount

Position open immediately.

Salary: $32.00 per hour

Job Types: Full-time, Permanent

Benefits:

- Extended health and dental
- Life Insurance
- Loyalty Program

Schedule:

- 8-hour shift
- Day shift
- Monday to Friday
- On-call rotation